

3rd International Young Scientists Award “Oil and Gas Project: A Glance into the Future”

The preparation of the 3rd International Young Scientists Award “Oil and Gas Project: A Glance into the Future” organized by the IBC Working Committee “Modern Technologies and Prospective Oil and Gas Industry Projects” and the “Gas Industry” scientific and technical magazine (owned by PJSC Gazprom).

In 2020, the nominations are: “Extraction, processing, shipment, and storage of hydrocarbons”, “LNG projects”, “Electric power industry”, “IT solutions”, “Digitalization and management of oil and gas field development”.

The competition is opened to all scientists of all nationalities no older than 35 years of age at the time of application or to research teams of up to 5 persons. We kindly welcome applicants from all over the world. We expect the final submission of applications by the end of April 2020. This year the competition will be held online. Please register and apply in English only.

The winners will be awarded with one of the following exclusive prizes: an internship in one of the leading oil and gas companies, project support and promotion, publishing in Gas Industry magazine.
